LATEST DISPATCHES. Trouble Over the Proposed Lease of the O. R. & N. DISASTROUS INUNDATION. Two Rivers in Austria Destroy Several Villages---Terrible Suffering. THE CROWN PRINCE TAKES CHARGE. The Emperor Wishes him to Become Familiar with Affairs.
BERLIN, March 24.—The decree which was issued yesterday authorizing the Crown Prince to transact official business, expresses the wish of the emperor that he become conversant with the affairs of state by immediate participation in them. It intrusts to the Crown Prince the preparation and discharge of such business as may be assigned to him by the emperor, and empowers him to affix his signature to documents as representative of the emperor without especial authority on such occasions.
Oregon Members Won't Ratify. NEW YORK, March 24.—There is trouble in Northern Pacific and Oregon Railway & Navigation company circles over the proposed lease of the latter. It seems that the local board of the Oregon company have refused to ratify the lease because they consider it inimical to the interests of the corporation and to the state of Oregon.
The Oxford's Scooped Again. LONDON, March 24.—The boat race to-day between the Cambridge and Oxford crews was won by the Cambridge.
Too Much Water. VIENNA (Austria), March 24.—The Scamoa river has destroyed thirty villages. The Roba river has inundated six villages near Pesth. The inhabitants are in the depth of misery. A relief fund has been started, headed by the emperor with five thousand dollars.
England Wants the Gun. NEW YORK, Mar. 24.—The announcement is made to-day that the Gantling gun will soon become the property of foreigners. An English syndicate wants it and is willing to pay a large sum for it.
A Boston Prize Fight. BOSTON, Mar. 24.—Dick Guthrie, champion light middle weight of Canada, last night fought Ed. Benny, champion colored middle weight of the United States. At the end of ten rounds Benny threw up the sponge. Both men were severely punished.
He Shot at a Vacuum. SNOHOMISH (W. T.), March 24.—Joseph Greer, 24 years of age, a popular young man of this place, suicided last night by shooting himself in the head. No cause is known.
Got What he was After. Lon Swartz took in a little too much democratic enthusiasm yesterday and was somewhat quarrelsome. A short time after dark he picked a quarrel in the Columbia saloon with a man named Reynolds from the country, and got a handsome knock-down for his pains. Reynolds tried to keep away from him and avoid the fight, but Swartz was determined to have it and got it. Reynolds has been arrested on complaint and will be tried on Monday.

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

W. F. Darby was summoned home yesterday by sickness in the family. Mrs. Robertson was at chapel Friday. Miss Eola Royal read a good essay. Dr. and Mrs. Harrington were at chapel Tuesday. The doctor conducted chapel exercises. Rev. Dr. Kummings, of Portland, has been chosen to deliver the Baccalaureate sermon at commencement. Miss Lovina Culver, a graduate of the teachers' course of '87, will begin teaching near Whiteaker the first of April. Levi Magee spent Sunday at his home in Polk county. Eb. Mann will spend the Sabbath at his home near Zena. W. E. Perry read an oration Tuesday and Virgil Peringer Monday. Subject: "Three Crises of Life," and "Symbols." A. W. Bowersox, who has just closed a six months' school in Yamhill county a week ago, began teaching at Fairfield Monday. Lefe Conn and John Griffith were at chapel Thursday. W. F. Bigby read an oration on the "Blessing and Variety in Topography." Mrs. W. T. Williamson, of Salem, and Miss Rosa Powell, of East Portland, visited the museum and were present at several recitations. W. J. Culver, a student the first half of this year, now teaching at Wheatland, came up yesterday and will spend Sunday in the city. Prof. Van Scoy gave the students quite an emphasized lecture Friday in chapel, on the importance of thorough work and a complete course. The University is in receipt of a portion of the library of the late Rev. Mr. Wilber, and expects another case of books soon; this will make quite an addition to the University library. J. B. Early will begin teaching in Linn county in April, and A. M. Reeves, who has completed a successful school of eight months in Benton county, will begin teaching at Monroe. The University has sent teachers to most every county in the state. Prof. Van Scoy is having a gravel walk and hedge made in front of the Woman's college, which will add much to its appearance, and the tower will soon be repainted and the scaffolding taken down, which has marred the looks of the college all winter.

Whitaker, Eugene City; Ike Inestine, New York City; Leo Stock, Portland.
Make no Mistake. By dispelling the symptoms so often mistaken for Consumption, SANTA ABIE has brought gladness to many a household. By its prompt use for breaking up the cold that too often develops into that fatal disease, thousands can be saved from an untimely grave. You make no mistake by keeping a bottle of this pleasant remedy in your house. CALIFORNIA CAT-R-CURE is equally effective in eradicating all traces of Nasal Catarrh. Both of these wonderful California remedies are sold and warranted by D. W. Matthews & Co., 106 State street, Salem. $1.00 a package, 3 for $2.50.
Steamboat Excursion. The ladies of the Woman's College Association will give, about the middle of April, a two day's steamboat excursion to the Cascades. They propose making this the event of the season, so far as genuine pleasure and enjoyment goes.

MORNING TELEGRAMS.

The Business Outlook this Season is Very Encouraging. CANADIAN PACIFIC SUBSIDY. Ten Million Dollars in Cash and Five Million Acres of Land. EPIDEMIC DISEASES. Bill to Establish Stations to Prevent Their Importations.
WASHINGTON, March 23.—The Senate Committee on Epidemic Diseases, of which Senator Harris is preparing a bill which will be reported in a day or two, providing for the maintenance of eight national quarantine stations to prevent the importation of epidemic diseases into this country. The places at which the bill proposes to establish stations and the amounts which it will appropriate to cover the cost of the establishment and maintenance are: Delaware Breakwater, $60,000; Cape Charles, Virginia, $100,000; Sapelo Sound, Georgia, $30,000; Mouth of Mississippi, $45,000; Key West, Florida, $75,000; San Diego, California, $55,000; San Francisco, $85,000; Port Townsend, $45,000.
Canadian Pacific Subsidy. OTTAWA, March 23.—It is stated to-day that the Dominion Cabinet has decided to pay the Canadian Pacific $10,000,000 cash and surrender 5,000,000 acres of land, to quash the monopoly. Five of the $10,000,000 are to be in the shape of a subsidy for a fast Atlantic line of Canadian mail steamers. It is estimated that before the deal is completed, it will cost at least another $10,000,000 in subsidies to different provinces to buy off opposition.
Business Improving. NEW YORK, March 23.—R. G. Dun & Co's Weekly Review says: There has been an increase of business generally since the blizzard. A great deal of this was to meet delayed orders, and it is not yet quite clear whether or not there is a definite improvement in trade. Stocks, breadstuffs, provisions, cottons, sugars and oils are still a little lower, with larger transactions.
Probably True. NEW YORK, March 23.—Sidney Dillon confirms the report that the Union Pacific will extend the Utah Central Railroad to a connection with the Southern Pacific at Mojave in the event of securing favorable congressional legislation.
Jones Denies. PITTSBURGH, March 23.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican National Committee, left for Washington this morning. He denies being in collusion with Elkins and others in the effort to nominate Blaine.
The Fattest Man Dead. PETERSBURG (Va.), March 23.—S. M. Bishop, the fattest man in the world, died yesterday of intermittent fever. He was 25 years old and weighed 550 pounds. When a youth he tipped the beam at 300 pounds.
Free of Duty. WASHINGTON, March 23.—Assistant Secretary Maynard has informed the Collector of Customs at San Diego, Cal., that coal imported from Northwestern Canada for use by Spreckels' Sugar Refining Co., of San Francisco, being anthracite coal, is exempt from duty under the provisions of the free list.
Disastrous Flames. LOS ANGELES, March 21.—A fire which broke out in Hunter's restaurant here to-day, destroyed the place and several stores adjoining. The loss is $10,000; $4000 insurance.
Organization of Alaska. WASHINGTON, March 21.—The house committee on territories to-day decided to report the bill for the organization of the territory of Alaska.
